Political Action Committee

A Political Action Committee (PAC) is simply a group of individuals with common values and goals who combine their resources to financially support candidates running for office. A PAC supports candidates that represent the interests of its members - in our case, long-term care providers.

Working together, long term care leaders can help elect lawmakers who will guide policy conversations that advance our values of providing high-quality of care that positively impacts the lives and health of aging and vulnerable Oklahomans.

Our Work

The LeadingAge OK - PAC is a powerful tool that will allow our association to further strengthen and expand its legislative visibility. LeadingAge OK - PAC can effect powerful change that will positively impact seniors in Oklahoma, but we need your support to make a true, lasting difference.

Here are some of the reasons why your contributions are so important:

- Your PAC dollars are crucial in helping us support candidates and elected officials who understand the long-term care field and share our values as well as concerns.
- The LeadingAge OK - PAC empowers us to have a greater impact on the political process, while allowing us to be more competitive among other associations that may often have conflicting goals.
- Our PAC is an important tool that gives our members the access and visibility the long-term care field needs in order to have its voice heard and impact Oklahoma legislation.

Who Can Give?

Oklahoma campaign finance laws require LAOK-PAC contributors to be LeadingAge Oklahoma Association membership, business partners, shareholders, and their families.

Executive and administrative personnel include full-time, salaried employees of LAOK member facilities and their management systems with policymaking, managerial, professional, or supervisory responsibilities. Contributing to the LAOK-PAC must be voluntarily made from personal financial resources (not corporate dollars).

Where Does the Money Go?

One hundred percent of LAOK-PAC contributions support candidates who understand the continuum of care and senior housing/services commitments to their communities. The LAOK-PAC Board uses political action dollars strategically and intentionally to elect Oklahoma state legislative candidates who support our industry and understand Oklahoma's long term care needs. LAOK- PAC is a nonpartisan political action committee.
